

Simplified Version of the Wedding at Cana

Jesus is invited to a wedding.

The wedding is in the city of Cana.

Jesus is at the wedding with his disciples and

Mary, the mother of Jesus.

The guests are gathered together.

They are having fun at a party after the wedding.

Mary says to Jesus,

“The guests are out of wine.”

Jesus responds to Mary,

“What are you doing, Mom? It’s not the right time.”

Mary says to the servers,

“Do whatever Jesus tells you.”

Jesus tells the servers,

“Fill six big jars with water.”

The servers fill the jars.

Jesus says to the servers,

“Bring some of the water to the headwaiter.”

The servers bring the water to the headwaiter—the server in charge.

The headwaiter tastes the water,

but the water has changed.

The water has become wine.

The headwaiter calls out to the groom and says,

“This wine is delicious.

You saved the best wine for the end of the party!”

It’s at the wedding in Cana that Jesus begins performing miracles.

Jesus’ disciples saw the miracle and saw God’s power through Jesus.

Based on John 2:1-11