

TEACH ALL NATIONS

Pope John Paul II was the most traveled pope in history. He visited more than 125 countries and made more than 100 trips.

He thought it was very important to visit as many lands as he could, bringing God's message of love to all people and urging them to remain faithful to God.

Here are just a few of the many countries Pope John Paul II visited.

Find each country on the map and list its coordinates. Shade in the country on the map with pencil or crayon.

The star on the map indicates Vatican City (I-4).
